APU eSports Malaysia Academy: First-of-its-Kind in Malaysia

APU eSports Malaysia Academy is a joint-initiative by Esports Malaysia and APIIT Education Group in promoting healthy competitive gaming within the university environment. Apart from promoting healthy competitive gaming, the Academy will play a role in building students' character, by developing essential life skills such as perseverance, teamwork and decision-making. The Academy offers game-based courses as well as industry-based courses, to nurture global-ready eSports professionals, such as competitive gamers, shout-casters, and team managers.

It was launched on 23rd of February 2017 at APU New Campus by Y.B. Datuk Dr. Mary Yap Kain Ching, Deputy Minister of Higher Education.

Master Ramsay "KLH Bipolar" Devaraj
League of Legends Coaching Team

Bipolar started League of Legends at the end of Season 3. Starting professional gaming in 2014 was no easy task as Bipolar had to balance being in his school football team and being a straight A's student. By the end of 2014 he had made his mark on the Malaysian scene by taking down Kuala Lumpur Hunters (KLH) in the 2014 Winter TLC. Following this, Bipolar went to North America and was on the University of British Columbia (UBC) collegiate roster which is no small feat considering that UBC had proven they were the best collegiate level team in the world just the previous year. In his first year at UBC, Bipolar assisted UBC to their second North American collegiate championship in a row netting him a full scholarship from Riot Games for his first year at UBC. During his 2016 summer break, Bipolar started helping Kuala Lumpur Hunters as a coach/analyst and decided to stay for a year to help Malaysian eSports grow. Now, he is taking another year out of university to play and help KLH and APU eSports Malaysia Academy.

Master Julian "FDG Wynter" Tan

League of Legends Coaching Team

Wynter has always been closely associated with top tier TLC Malaysia teams and he played a major role last season in Fire Dragoon (FDG) season as the team's captain.
